

PETER DANILOV

On this great holiday I would like to tell about my grandfather's father. His name is Peter Danilov. Before the war he worked as a school teacher. He really loved children. One day a new teacher came to work in his school. It was a lovely girl Maria. Peter was shy, but he once dared show Maria to her house. Since then he did it every day. They created different games for children, conducted quizzes and organized various trips. They went to dances and to the movies. It was the beginning of a beautiful romance. They were happy in their small world. They were planning to get married. But in 1939 Peter was called up for war, he was 21 then. They were afraid that they would never see each other again. They had got married a few days before Peter went to the front. On March 24 they gave birth to their son Yura. Maria wrote Peter everything that was in her life. She prayed every day and God heard her. Peter remained alive. He fought until 1945, for him the war finished in Germany. He had 3 orders and 7 medals. After the war he stayed to live in Germany until 1947. They had 3 children. They returned to Ivanovo. Peter occupied a high post in the government and Maria continued to work as a teacher. They lived a long life together.
